

Corporate Business Travel, Lodging & Expense Reimbursement Policy

CATEGORY	Payroll & Expense Management	EFFECTIVE DATE	January 1, 2026	REVIEW CYCLE	Annual / Q4
----------	------------------------------	----------------	-----------------	--------------	-------------

Article 1. Travel Authorization & Advance Approval Workflow

All business travel requiring corporate expenditure must secure written authorization prior to ticket reservation or deposit commitment.

- Domestic Travel: Requires approval from the direct Department Head at least 14 days in advance of departure.
- International Travel: Requires Vice President (VP) and Finance Director pre-approval at least 30 calendar days in advance.
- Booking System: All commercial flights, rail, rental cars, and hotel reservations must be processed through Navan (corporate travel platform) to leverage negotiated rate schedules.

Article 2. Commercial Air & Rail Travel Standards

- Standard Economy Class is the mandatory booking tier for domestic and short-haul international flights under 6 hours duration.
- Business Class booking is authorized strictly for continuous long-haul flight segments exceeding 6 hours in uninterrupted duration.
- Airline seat upgrades (e.g., extra legroom, preferred boarding) are reimbursable only when total airfare remains below standard economy ceiling.

Article 3. Hotel Accommodations & Nightly Rate Limits

- Standard Tier Cities: Maximum reimbursable nightly rate is $200 per night (exclusive of mandatory municipal room taxes).
- Tier 1 High-Cost Metro Areas: For travel in New York City, San Francisco, London, Zurich, Tokyo, and Singapore, the nightly cap is elevated to $320.
- Airbnb / Short-term Rentals: Allowed when total cost is demonstrably equal to or lower than corporate hotel options and complies with corporate safety standards.

Article 4. Daily Per Diem Meals & Client Entertainment Caps

- Daily Meal Per Diem: Fixed daily allowance of $75 per day for overnight business travel ($15 Breakfast, $25 Lunch, $35 Dinner).

NOTE / REQUIREMENT: Itemized merchant receipts are strictly mandatory for any individual meal, rideshare, or incidental expense exceeding $25.

- Client Entertainment Dining: Reimbursable up to $100 per attendee including tax and gratuity (maximum 20% tip). Expense claims must itemize attendee names, job titles, and commercial business purpose.

Article 5. Expense Submission Deadlines & Prohibited Charges

- Expense Submission Window: Expense reports must be submitted through the portal within 30 calendar days from the incurrence date.

NOTE / REQUIREMENT: Expense reports submitted past 60 days will be rejected automatically and will not be reimbursed by Accounts Payable.

- Non-Reimbursable Expenses: Traffic/parking violations, airline lounge memberships, personal mini-bar items, personal streaming subscriptions, and companion travel expenses.