Article 1. Biannual Performance Review Cycles

Nexus Corporation conducts formal 360-degree performance appraisals twice per calendar year: Mid-Year Review in June and Year-End Review in December.

Evaluations encompass self-assessment, peer feedback from a minimum of 3 cross-functional teammates, direct report evaluations for managers, and direct supervisor assessment.

- Merit-based compensation increments, stock grants, and promotional elevations take effect annually on February 1st following the year-end appraisal.

Article 2. Performance Improvement Framework (PIP)

When an employee demonstrates persistent underperformance relative to their job tier expectations, a structured Performance Improvement Plan (PIP) may be initiated.

- Duration: Standard PIP timeline is 30, 60, or 90 days depending on role complexity.
- Specific, measurable milestones (SMART goals) are defined collaboratively between the direct manager and People Operations.
- Failure to satisfy documented criteria by conclusion of the PIP period will result in formal separation.
