

Corporate Expenditure & Employee Reimbursement Policy

CATEGORY	Payroll & Tax	EFFECTIVE DATE	January 1, 2026	REVIEW CYCLE	Annual / Q4
----------	---------------	----------------	-----------------	--------------	-------------

Article 1. General Principles of Corporate Spending

Every expenditure incurred on behalf of Nexus Corporation must be legitimate, reasonable, directly related to corporate operational objectives, and documented with verifiable invoices.

Employees are stewards of corporate capital and must exercise prudent fiscal judgement when incurring reimbursable costs.

Article 2. Client Entertainment, Team Events & Alcohol Policy

- Client Business Meals: Maximum allowance of $100 per participant including tax and gratuity.
- Alcohol: Eligible for reimbursement only during bona fide client entertainment dinners or quarterly company-sponsored milestone celebrations.
- Team Offsites: Requires advance budget sign-off from Finance and People Operations.

Article 3. Corporate Credit Cards & Monthly Reconciliation

Corporate credit card holders must reconcile all transactions monthly within 10 business days of statement generation.

Inadvertent personal charges incurred on corporate credit lines must be flagged immediately and refunded to the company via direct payroll deduction or bank wire.